‘Ano ‘ai ke aloha mai ka ‘aina hanau ‘o Puna.

Greetings from my birth land of Puna.

My name is Faye Pua Hanohano-Ka’awaloa. Born and raised in the District of Puna to John Otoichi Kaleipa’ihala Hanohano, father and Hannah Kaunakapu Kamelamela, mother. I am a keiki o ka ‘aina and a successful valued product of Puna. In my early years, I was enrolled in Pahoa High and Elementary School. In 1971, I graduated from the Kamehameha Schools, Kapalama campus. I have an Associates Degree in Police Science and a Bachelors Degree in Sociology. Recently, I completed my Masters in Business Administration.

Twenty-four years ago, I started my work at Kulani Correctional Facility as an Adult Corrections Officer and a member of the United Public Workers, UPW and American Federation State County Municipal Employees, AFSCME. Presently, I am the Administrative Lieutenant at Kulani and the State Secretary-Treasurer for the United Public Workers. My work experience has given me many opportunities to enhance my leadership, administrative, and negotiating skills.

The community has been good to me and in return I would like to convey my appreciation by running for the State House of Representative, District 4. I am committed to integrity, honesty, and accountability for my community, the Big Island, and the State of Hawai’i. As your representative I will be the voice of Puna. ‘O wau iho no me ka ha’a ha’a.

I humbly ask for your support and vote.

Ka leo o Puna- the Voice of Puna.
